1<sup>o</sup> choice:

ROTONDA di SAN TOME' and CORNELLO DEL TASSO village

the traffic cars stop preserves the medieval atmosphere of Cameron Corner, one of the most beautiful villages in Italy that, in the thirteenth century saw the birth of the postal system.

At the end of the walk through the alleys, descending from the Val Brembana to Almenno, stop at the Temple of San Tome, which attracts the attention of travelers by almost 2000 years.

Lunch at a restaurant "Trattoria La Frasca": traditional cuisine in the ancient Augustinian monastery dating from the fourteenth century.

2<sup>o</sup> choice:

ISEO LAKE and MONTISOLA

Lake Iseo is the smallest of alpine lakes, one of the most fascinating and romantic lakes of Italy. In the center stands Montisola, the largest lake island in Europe, a real green jewel, with tiny villages and amazing villas.

After the tour lunch in a restaurant with typical lake.

3<sup>o</sup> choice:

SOTTO IL MONTE and FONTANELLA

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli, Pope John XXIII, was born in Sotto il Monte, a small country village in the bergamo and still seem to see him while walking in the streets of his village.

Following the death of Pope Pius XII in 1958, Roncalli was elected Pope, to his great surprise. He had even arrived in the Vatican with a return train ticket to Venice. His family worked as sharecroppers as did most of the people of Sotto il Monte - a striking contrast to that of his predecessor, Eugenio (Pope Pius XII), who came from an ancient aristocratic, long connected to the Papacy.

At the end of the visit to the birthplace of the "Good Pope" the church of Santa Maria where he received baptism and the summer residence of Ca Maitino, continued to visit to Fontanella and the Abbey of Sant'Egidio jewel of romanesque art of the X<sup>o</sup> century. preserved.

Lunch at the farmhouse with a traditional menu.
